EXAMINER PACK

Period

November 2011

ATTENTION

This pack is for the Oral Test and should be given to the Examiners two (2) hours before the test begins. It contains:

- the Interlocutor Frame for C1 – parts 1 & 2
- the test items (i.e., the questions for Activity 1 and the tasks for Activities 2)
- a reminder of potential trouble spots during the exam
- the Rating Scale for C1

The purpose of the interlocutor frame is to reduce variability in oral examiner speech and to ensure that the test taking experience is the same for all candidates. Please use it to conduct the exam.

INTERLOCUTOR FRAME FOR C1 LEVEL – Part 1 (Activity 1)

Introducing ourselves – Ice-breaking questions (1 minute for both candidates) [NOT MARKED]

Examiner: Good afternoon. Welcome. Can I have your evaluation forms, please? (Take them and give them to your co-assessor, making sure you don't mix up who is who.)

Thank you, please take a seat.

My name is _____ (and) this is my co-assessor _____. S/he will be observing us.

Please speak in English, loudly and clearly, throughout the test. You may ask me to repeat task instructions or give any other clarifications necessary but only in English. So... What is your name? (Write it down.) And yours? (Write it down.)

Examiner: (Addressing candidate A) So _____ (his/her NAME), what do you do ...? / where do you live? / do you have a lot of free time – any hobbies? etc. (any general questions to break the ice and get to know the candidate.)

Examiner: (Addressing candidate B) And what about you _____ (his/her NAME), why are you sitting for this exam? / what do you do ...? / are you very busy at work/school? etc. (any general questions to break the ice and get to know the candidate.)

Activity 1 (4 minutes for both candidates)

Examiner: Ok. Let's start with Activity 1. I will ask each one of you an opinion question and you will each have about two minutes to answer. You must clearly state your opinion and justify it.

Start with candidate A.

Choose 1 question from the ones given below and ask him/her.

Examiner: (When the candidate has finished.) Thank you.

Choose a DIFFERENT (from the one you asked candidate A) question from the one given below and ask him/her.

Examiner: (When the candidate has finished.) Thank you.

ACTIVITY 1: RESPONSE TO AN OPINION QUESTION

Questions more appropriate for younger candidates

1. What kind of (extra) training can teachers do to make their lessons more interesting? Explain your answer.
2. Do you think that technology has brought people closer? Explain your answer.
3. Explain what you think the following phrase means 'Life is a process of give and take'.
4. How do you think the Internet has changed the way we learn (English)?
5. What are the potential dangers of using social networking sites, such as Facebook, for young Internet users?
6. Do you think that it is important for young people to be up-to-date with current events? Why or why not?
7. At what age do you think young people should be allowed to learn to drive? Explain your answer.

Questions more appropriate for older candidates

8. If you were the Prime Minister of your country for a day, what changes do you think you should first make and why?
9. Do you think we determine our future or things are simply left to fate? Why?
10. Some people claim that the use of Grenglish in sms texts and the internet has affected young people's writing skills in Greek? Do you agree? Why or why not?
11. Do you agree or disagree with the saying "Speech is silver, silence is golden"? Explain why.
12. How do you think technology has affected our everyday life?
13. What do you think are the most annoying habits of Greek drivers today? What can be done about them?
14. What do you think of people who believe in horoscopes?

INTERLOCUTOR FRAME FOR C1 LEVEL – Part 2 (Activity 2)

Activity 2 (15 minutes for both candidates)

Examiner: Now, let's move on to Activity 2. I will ask each of you to read some Greek texts, which are different, but in some way related to each other. These texts contain information that you need for a task which requires you to exchange information with your partner. I will be listening to you while you talk to each other but I will not take part in your conversation.

When I tell you to begin, you [address Candidate B] _____ (his/her NAME) will open the discussion but, remember, both of you are responsible for keeping the conversation going.

Select a page from the Candidate Booklet and address candidate B. Hand the booklet to him/her.

Examiner: So _____ (his/her NAME), go to page _____ and _____.

Address candidate A. Hand the booklet to him/her.

Examiner: _____ (his/her NAME), go to page _____.

Address both candidates.

Examiner: After you have read your text(s), you will have about 10 minutes to complete the following task. (Choose and read out the task from the ones below.)

You now have 2-3 minutes to read your text(s) and then, before you start, I will repeat the task for you. Now, please, start reading.

(Allow 2-3 minutes for the candidates to read the text.) Ready? Now, turn so that you face each other, and I will repeat the task. (Wait until they turn and repeat the task.) Ok. [address Candidate B] _____ (his/her NAME), you may start.

Examiner: (When the candidates have finished.) Ok. Thank you.

This is the end of the examination. Have a nice evening.

ACTIVITY 2: ORAL PRODUCTION AND MEDIATION

EATING TOGETHER (PAGE 6 for Candidate A & PAGE 11 for Candidate B)

TASK 1: Exchange information from your texts and together decide on the advice you will give a mutual friend whose family never eat together.

TASK 2: Exchange information from your texts and together decide on the two most important benefits from eating together as a family.

TASK 3: (for younger candidates). Imagine you and your partner are preparing a leaflet for your school on the benefits of eating together as a family. Exchange information from your texts and together decide which tips you will include to persuade your fellow students to eat as a family more often.

CHILDREN DON'T SLEEP ENOUGH (PAGE 7 for Candidate A & PAGE 12 for Candidate B)

TASK 4: Exchange information from your texts and together decide on the two most important pieces of information you would give to a friend of yours who doesn't sleep enough / a friend of yours whose children don't sleep enough.

TASK 5: Exchange information from your texts and together decide on the most important pieces of information to be included in a leaflet about children and sleep.

TASK 6: (for younger candidates). Imagine you and your partner are preparing a talk to Lyceum students about the lack of sleep and its effects. Exchange information from your texts and together decide what you will include in your talk.

(Use PAGE 16 for a third candidate –Candidate C– if necessary)

- TASK 7: Imagine you are a university student and together with your partner you are organising a trip abroad for the students in your department. Read the texts and together decide which of the European capitals you will choose and why.
- TASK 8: Imagine you and your partner work in a travel agency. Exchange information from your texts and together decide which European capitals you would include in (or exclude from) your next travel brochure with great offers.
- TASK 9: Imagine you and your friend who is interested in art and architecture want to go abroad for Christmas. Exchange information from your texts and together decide which city you should visit and why.

- TASK 15: Imagine you have been asked to write a review on the book "All about Asterix". Exchange information from your texts and together decide what you will include in your review.

POTENTIAL TROUBLE SPOTS DURING THE ORAL EXAM
PROBLEM	SOLUTION
...if the candidate is very hesitant, pauses for too long and produces little output?	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Repeat the candidate's last phrase with rising intonation. 2. Ask a few prompting questions (Is there anything else you'd like to add...?). 3. Try to break down the task into simpler questions.
...if the candidate is very nervous/ tense and has difficulty speaking?	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Smile, use body language, facial expressions and intonation to make the candidate feel more comfortable. 2. If you asked the tense candidate to begin first, switch to the other candidate and come back to her/him later.
...if the candidate does not/cannot take part in the conversation or cannot continue it	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Ask if the candidate is alright, if s/he'd like the task repeated. 2. To get the candidate started, ask what information from the Greek text is useful for the task. 3. If the candidate gets stuck, rephrase what s/he has last said. 4. If the candidate is still hesitating, turn to the other candidate. 5. If the candidate is still unable to talk, you take his/her place to converse with the other candidate.
...if the candidate addresses the examiner instead of the other candidate in activity 2	Interrupt the candidates and tell them to address one another. It is advisable to ask the candidates to turn their chairs a lit bit so that they are facing each other before you start activity 2.

NOTE:

- Any extra help or guidance (as described above) given to a candidate should be taken into account in the assignment of the final mark.
- Remember that you are there to assess candidates and not to help them or teach them. It is very easy to slip into the teacher's role and supply the candidate with a word s/he is searching for or to complete the candidate's phrase in order to keep the candidate going. Avoid providing unnecessary help as much as possible.
- Care has been taken to phrase task instructions using simple lexis and sentence structure. Do not change or add more information to task instructions.
- If a candidate does not understand a word in the task instructions, you may give a synonym if you are asked to, without however altering the task instructions.
